NEW MEXICO ASSOCIATION FOR HOME AND HOSPICE CARE

2010 AWARDS NOMINATION

"THE HOSPICE AIDE OF THE YEAR"

The New Mexico Association for Home and Hospice Care is now accepting applications for "The Hospice Aide of the Year". This prestigious award is bestowed annually in recognition of a hospice aide who provides high quality, compassionate care to his/her patients in their place of residence. Hospice aides are integral and irreplaceable members of the hospice interdisciplinary team. The outstanding care and support they provide offers great comfort to not only the patient but also the caregivers. Their special way of caring and contributions to the hospice team allows the hospice patient to die with dignity surrounded by the people and things that they treasure.

This award was presented for the first time at the NMAHHC Summer Conference in August of 2007. The first recipient was Chelsea Caudillo, Ambercare Hospice; 2008, Leann Brown, Basin Home Health and Hospice; 2009 Dina Gray, Hospice of New Mexico.

The award will be presented at the NMAHHC Summer Conference in August of 2010.
